The Book of Greek and Roman Folktales, Legends, and Myths May 16 2022 The first anthology to present the entire range of ancient Greek and Roman stories- from myths and fairy tales to jokes Captured centaurs and satyrs, talking animals, people who suddenly change sex, men who give birth, the temporarily insane and the permanently thick-witted, delicate sensualists, incompetent seers, a woman who remembers too much, a man who cannot laugh-these are just some of the colorful characters who feature in the unforgettable stories that ancient Greeks and Romans told in their daily lives. Together they created an incredibly rich body of popular oral stories that include, but range well beyond, mythology-from heroic legends, fairy tales, and fables to ghost stories, urban legends, and jokes.

Rere Atu, Taku Manu! Jan 24 2023 Rere Atu, Taku Manu! (Fly forth, my bird!) is the first book about the Maori-language news-papers, of which some 35 were produced between 1842 and the 1930s by government, churches and independent Maori and Pakeha. The newspapers are a remarkable record of an indigenous language in British colonial times and a substantial but little tapped source of a colony's history.

Zenu U Atu Jun 24 2020 ZENU U ATU is a collection of writings compiled between 1991 to 1993. From Rosicrucian to Theological systems, based on the merging of symbols, numbers and letters, the purpose of this collection is to demonstrate balance through the union of opposites (Unio Mystica). Science and Religion, Male and Female, Light and Darkness are perceived as completions of their polarity, not in opposition. Through this union of opposites a third is established, which C.G. Jung appropriately termed as Synergy.

Titiro KI Tua Atu O Te Kiri Jul 26 2020 I am a Māori, feminist, vegan, poet, mother, and student. I live with depression so I guess I can add mentally ill to the list. But I have found that labels disrupt the mind and destroy the heart if you believe too deeply that you are what you are called, so I try to simply be me. I don't bother talking often, I have almost perfected the resting bitch face, and my antisocial skills are on point. I write about my life experiences, my hopes, and dreams - also my nightmares. In this collection, I have brought together pieces I have written over the last three years. My observations, experiences, and feelings about being a vegan, being a woman, and being a female living on planet earth.

Atu the Forgetful Boy and the Mango Tree May 24 2020 Having no responsibilities can lead to becoming less and less care for anything in life. Often we resolved into creating our own little worlds which most would not understand. Atu, demonstrates a snap shot of this 'idle being' as a result of not given responsibilities to move him towards the 'useful being'. Yet, his forgetful was not far gone, saved by his will to understand the only object he loved to visit in his spare times.
