Annabel zou zichzelf nooit omschrijven als eenzaam. Ze heeft het druk met haar baan bij de politie, haar kat en haar oude moeder. Maar wanneer ze het half vergane lichaam ontdekt van een buurvrouw die al maanden dood in huis ligt, is ze geschokt dat niemand heeft opgemerkt dat de vrouw was verdwenen. Op haar werk besluit ze onderzoek te doen naar eenzame doden, en ze ontdekt dat dit in haar stad vaker voorkomt dan ze ooit had kunnen vermoeden. En in verhouding tot andere delen van het land onrustbarend veel vaker

This book examines service-learning as a critical pedagogy and explores the benefit of creating a reflective journal. It can be a form of assessment for the students' service experiences connected to academic theory through their critical reflection and it can also be a form of critical action based on critical thought. Since publication of the first edition in 1996, this book has established itself as an essential text for occupational therapists. It offers an understanding of the law relating to their practice, but is written to be accessible for those who have no prior legal knowledge. The text provides valuable information for occupational therapists employed in health and social services, as well as the law relevant to private practitioners. The book includes chapters on all the main client groups and presents the relevant specialist law. Students and teachers of occupational therapy will find the chapters on professional registration, education, training and research of particular interest. The second edition also provides an introduction to the complex organisational and legal developments which impact the work of the occupational therapist, including: the Human Rights Act; the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003; the concept of clinical governance and the role of the new Health Professions Council. It is a generous resource for the occupational therapy student, practitioner and service manager.
